Brookside Ditch Cleaning Chore Handed Co. Engineer

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Board of Supervisors Tuesday referred the request of 165 residents of Brookside for ditch and culvert cleaning to the County Road Department and the Department of Special District Services.

County Engineer David K. Spear said the drainage ditches are presently in the best condition they have been in a long time but that the recent rain washed in some sediment. He said his department will act as swiftly as possible to clean portions of ditches in the public right of way.

The petition also requests the board to alleviate "conditions creating an obstructed impeded flow of storm-waters through Brookside via or by means-of the Fairway Drive Channel and the area existing between said channel and the Central Avenue culvert.

Speer said the residents feel that new construction on Broadway and the building of a market will cause a larger runoff.

The petition asks for cleaning of the culvert at the intersection of Par and Fairway drives.

The petition says they are informed the county intends to initiate cleaning of the conduit and storm easement from the end of Fairway Drive to the hill prior to reaching Central Aveune. It says this would be inadequate to protect petitioner's property and health rights, including possible result of any pollutants. The petition demands that the work be done prior to or on Oct. 22. It ends with the promise of legal action if damage is caused "by the negligence of the proper authorities of San Diego County."

Men's Club to Hear Pros and Cons of November Election

Two representatives from the Grossmont-Cajon Valley League of Women Voters will present the program Friday at the noon luncheon-meeting of the Lemon Grove Men's Club.

The club meets at 12 noon at Brunwick Bowlero, 7065 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Richard Fiske and Mrs. Margaret McMorrow of the non-partisan group will present both pros and cons on various measures which will appear on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Last week Wadie Deddeh, Democrat candidate for the 77th Assembly District, was guest speaker.

He told the club members "We should never begrudge the expansion of our educational system. Education is good business. It can help alleviate the welfare problem in California."

Deddeh said he was especially interested in seeing the vocational aspect of education enlarged.

Deddeh also said he was for revision of property taxation. "As it stands now, the small howeowner is subsidizing the land speculators."

He said California loses 200 million dollars per year because of unequal assessments.

Deddeh added that he was against the state inventory tax because "we are chasing businesses away from California."

The trade show will have exhibitions by manufacturers of photographic equipment.

Check Forger Sentenced To 14 Years

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A man who helped forge and cash $4,000 in checks that had been stolen from the Homeland Publishing Company, publisher of the Lemon Grove Review and Spring Valley Bulletin in April has finally been sent to state prison for up-to-14 years.

Danny Ray Scott, 23, was arrested with Beverly Merkel on May 2 and on May 5, Scott walked out of San Diego city jail when jailers called another man who had the same name as Scott and was due to be released. He was arrested in New York state after his car was in an accident.

Mrs. Merkel had previously been placed on three year's probation for her part in the crime.

The probation report says that Scott said he had the chance to attend college on a football scholarship if he was allowed to remain free.

Over 100 checks were stolen from the newspaper along with a check protector. The probation officer estimated that $4,000 in the forged checks were cashed with Scott getting $1,500 of the money.

Scott and Mrs. Merkel, the report says, were living in the Saratoga Hotel in San Diego when they were arrested.

Fire Prevention Helps Save Lives, Property

Between eleven and twelve thousand Americans lose their lives every year because of fire. Eight of every ten could be saved if they knew fire prevention procedures, according to John Ott, Lemon Grove Fire Department fire inspector.

The Lemon Grove Fire Department, like many departments throughout the nation, conducts fire prevention programs to help lower the loss in life and property.

"Education is the most effective way of preventing fires and it's a 52-weeks a year job", Ott said. Last week local firemen carried their message of fire prevention to over 5,000 adults and children in observance of National Fire Prevention Week.

Lemon Grove's firemen conducted station tours, spoke at club meetings, showed films and passed out fire prevention literature besides holding fire drills at area schools.

Fire Drills

The fire drills involved the planting of a smoke producing device, the sounding of the fire alarm and the responding of an engine company. This procedure was used in six schools with over 3,000 children participating. Smokeless-drills were held at four schools.

"The children performed well. Times for evacuation ranged from 20 seconds for 80 children and one minute and 25 seconds for 600 children," Ott said.

"We stress the importance of orderly evacuation to the children and ask them to carry the message home to their parents.

"There are over 500,000 house fires alone in the United States every year. They can happen anywhere. For this reason, every family should have a pre-fire evacuation plan.

Home Plan

"Make a diagram of the house, listing possible evacuation routes. Sleep with closed doors. If during the night, you wake up and smell smoke, stay close to the floor and feel the door before you open it. If it is too hot to touch, do not open it. Take an alternate route.

"Once outside, sound an alarm to others. Have a central meeting place to count noses, making sure everyone is out, and send someone to call the fire department.

Ott said he encourages the public to have the fire department phone number adjacent to the phone. "For fire and other emergencies call 469-4113. For business calls please phone 466-0564.

A Farewell to Pat Higgins

by Sherman Skeet

Tomorrow evening, the Catholic Interracial Council of Greater San Diego will hold a testimonial dinner honoring Pat Higgins, a Lemon Grove man, who, until recently, was News Director for KOGO stations, affiliates of NBC.

In addition to this signal honor, it is understood that the local Labor Union and leaders of the Democratic Party will show in a marked manner similar regard for the selfless devotion to duty and admirable professionalism that Higgins exuded during his tenure on the San Diego beat.

The Lemon Grove newspaper, and the LIGHT HOUSE, a newspaper representing residents of southeast San Diego, are jointly editorializing on the loss Higgins' departure incurs in view of a dearth of similar civic minded individuals and his courage in defending his liberal convictions.

These and other outpourings of admiration did not come about because hero worship is endemic here. They are the result of a realization of the acute loss the entire community has suffered.

Higgins, a native of Spokane, Washington attended Gonzaga and served in the Air Force and Infantry in England, France and Germany. He later graduated from the Medill School of Journalism with BS and MS degrees in journalism.

He served with the United Press in Chicago and the Buffalo Evening News. He joined television in 1956 at WBUF, Buffalo, as news director.

Higgins is past State Chairman of Calif. Associated Press Radio and TV Association; past Vice President Western Region Radio and TV News Directors Assn., and is presently a director of the S. Cal. Radio and TV Assn.

Following his recent separation from KOGO where he worked since 1958, Higgins now goes to NBC in Los Angeles.

He will be missed by his Lemon Grove area friends.

His philosophy, although it did not jibe with the slant of this newspaper, was always sound and thoughtful.

We wish Higgins well.

President'$ Club i$ Exclu$ive

Join the President's Club and succeed without half trying.

That, apparently, is what many persons and firms are doing.

For example, the St. Louis Post Dispatch recently reported that an Atlanta architect contributed $10,000 to the President's Club after he received a contract to design a new Veterans Administration hospital in Puerto Rico.

Wilfred Gregson, president of Gregson and Associates, acknowledged the contribution but denied any connection with the award of the contract. The contract, incidentally, was for $18.5 million and it was awarded two years ago. The amount of the architect's fee was not revealed but the newspaper reported that Gregson had contributed $5,000 to the President's Club between August 4, 1964 and February 28, 1965, $2,500 February 11 of this year and $2,500 August 12 of this year. Gregson also contributed $2,500 to the Democratic National Committee, it was said.

Maybe his firm would have gotten the job regardless—but it isn't very likely. There are too many other examples that refutes this possibility.

Anheuser-Busch brewing company of St. Louis, won a dismissal of a Department of Justic anti-trust suit a few weeks after a $10,000 contribution.

An award of a million dollar contract by poverty headquarters to one of the least qualified firms after a $3,000 contribution.

The appeal by President Johnson to Congress to restore funds on project Mohole, after a contribution of $25,000 to the President's Club by executives of the prime contractor Brown and Root of Texas.

Architectural and engineering contracts were awarded to two firms in California and one in Texas whose officials and families gave at least $30,500 to the Club in 1964-65.

The firms are Albert C. Martin, and Charles Luckman, of

The Women's Auxiliary to the San Diego County Pharmaceutical Association will hold a rummage sale Monday beginning at 9 a.m. at 8278 La Mesa Blvd., La Mesa.

HID Agent Retires

The Helix Irrigation Department twelve years ago inaugurated its right-of-way department. The man who started and organized that department retired Sept. 28 after 20 years of service with the District.

Neil Evans, 65, of 6685 San Miguel Ave., Lemon Grove, closed his career as right-of-way agent for the District. Evans and his wife Lucille have lived in Lemon Grove 10 years.

Evans worked as a drafsman and construction inspector prior to his right-of-way agent position, where he worked with the engineering, planning and design department in location and requirements of right-of-ways.

Best Move Ever

Evans, who describes his association with the District as "the best move I ever made in my life," was born in Michigan. He moved to the Philippines with his parents as a small boy. His father taught school in the Philippines before being appointed as a provincial governor by the President.

The Evans family returned to the United States in 1916 and Neil finished high school in New Mexico at the New Mexico State University prep division. He went on to attend two years of college at New Mexico State and Iowa State University.

Evans left school in 1918 and started to work as a field engineer in construction until World War II when he served with the Red Cross in the southwest Pacific.

His future plans include "catching up on a lot of sightseeing." "We eventually will tour the south Pacific and see the world." Evans said.

Contract Let For McMahans

Evans Construction Company, 9631 Grossmont Blvd., La Mesa, has been awarded a contract to construct the new McMahans Furniture Store in the College Grove Shopping Center.

Evans base bid was $75,000. The new College Grove furniture store will be the eighth McMahans, with the other stores located in Lemon Grove, Clairemont, El Cajon, Escondido, Oceanside, Vista and Imperial Beach.

University of San Diego, one of 12 Diocesan universities in the United States, has opened classes with 1,550 students and 150 faculty members.

Vener Berates Van Deerlin's Public Debate Rejection

Sam Vener, Republican Congressional candidate in the 37th District, says he still stands firm on his challenge to Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, his Democratic opponent, for a public debate on campaign issues, but accused Van Deerlin of attaching "impossible strings" to the debate.

Van Deerlin accepted Vener's challenge recently, but specified he would debate only if party chairmen arranged a debate by all Congressional candidates.

Vener said he is "extremely disappointed" by Van Deerlin's stipulation.

"I am extremely disappointed in Lionel's answer to a debate challenge that I sent to him. Lionel's answer was typical of his answers for the past four years—a lot of double talk and double meanings.

"Lionel again has misled the people of our district by saying he would debate, but in fact, he has already put impossible strings on it by insisting everybody else debate, too," Vener said. "What the other candidates do is out of my control and is not as important to all of the people of our district."

Vener added: "But my challenge stands. The LBJ rubber stamp puppet is afraid to debate on the real and true issues at hand because he just plain and simply doesn't stand a chance on accounting for his actions."

Vener had challenged Van Deerlin to a public debate on the following points, offering Van Deerlin the opportunity to pick the place and time, prior to Nov. 3:

1—The soft line adopted by Van Deerlin on seizure of San Diego tuna boats by Latin American nations off South and Central America.

2—Sharp increases in domestic government spending.

3—Boosts in non-military government employment.

4—Development of the economic potential of the San Diego area.

5—The effect of partisan political stands in bringing the Viet Nam war to a quick victory.

Read I Peter 2:19-25

When he was abused he did not retort with abuse, when he suffered he uttered no threats. (I Peter 2:23, NEB)

Television has only recently come to New Zealand, and it is of great interest, of course, especially to youth. Therefore, one day when we were thinking about Christlikeness in a junior high school class, we found ourselves discussing some of the television stars.

It was then I asked the class what they thought of the Texan and Neil Brook, the first a fast-shooting hero and the other a self-effacing social worker. I asked which one they though was more like Jesus?

Some inclined to vote for the fast shooter. "After all," they said, "he fights for the right." Others remembered Neil Brock for his compassion, hatred of oppression, willingness to identify himself with the lowest and the lost, and the way he just went on helping when he failed to win a response.

The class decision was that Neil Brock showed more likeness to Jesus, who said on the cross, "Father, forgive them; they do not know what they are doing." Jesus had the courage that keeps on helping and does not hit back.

Prayer: O God, Our Father, help us on the long road that leads to Christlikeness. Give us more of His patience, courage, and compassion that we may represent Him more faithfully each day. In the name of Jesus, the Son of man. Amen.

Thought for the day: It is character that makes the man.

Psalms, Hosea Part of Message

"Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: Let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me."

These words from Psalms are part of the responsive reading in this week's Christian Science Lesson-Sermon titled "Probation After Death." The Lesson-Sermon is read each Sunday in Christian Science churches throughout the world.

The sermon also includes these words from Hosea: "I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death."

Know Your United Crusade

Q. Isn't United Crusade a new game? What happened to the Community Chest, United Fund and United Community Services?

A. Four years ago the United Fund and Community Chest were merged into one operation called United Community Services (UCS). United Community Services still exists. It is the corporate name of the organization which conducts the annual campaign. United Crusade has been adopted this year as the name for the campaign.

Q. How is the United Crusade goal set?

A. The annual goal is an amount which most nearly represents the actual operating needs of the member organizations and the maximum amount which community leaders feel is attainable. Member organization needs are carefully studied by budget committees of responsible, experienced volunteer leaders from businss, industry, labor and the professions. These needs are appraised and combinded for inclusion in the campaign goal. Final allocations to member organizations are not made until after the campaign is completed and the amount raised is known.

Q. Why is the goal higher each year?

A. In this county, population increases about 30,000 persons per year. The number of people using services supported by the United Crusade continues to increase. In addition, general operating costs increase approximately 4% each year. A vigorous and growing county requires a vigorous and growing United Crusade, one that keeps pace with the increased costs of useful and approved service programs.

Tijuana School for the Deaf To Benefit From Fashion Show

by Virginia Duffield

The Kona Kai Club on Shelter Island will be the setting for "Holiday in Mexico", the luncheon-fashion show being presented by the San Diego Delta Zeta Alumnae Saturday. "Reservations have been arriving steadily," announced Mrs. Lawrence Bragg, alumnae president, "and we expect to be sold out before the show."

The national philanthropic project of Delta Zeta is to provide financial and educational aid for deaf children. The San Diego Alumnae of Delta Zeta has chosen the newly-founded school for deaf children in Tijuana, Centro de Rehabilitacion Auditiva, as the major recipient of the benefits from its luncheon-fashion show this year.

The school is the first of its kind in Tijuana, which offers no facilities for the education of its deaf children.

It was officially opened on a voluntary basis by Miss Janet Thompson, a former kindergarten teacher for the San Diego City Schools. Miss Thompson had been doing volunteer work with deaf children in her church and had spent some time assisting with general social work. and mission work in Mexicali.

Social Worker

A Mexican social worker, Alejandro Ynigo, heard of her work and invited her to attempt to work in any way possible with the deaf children of Tijuana, who have no opportunity whatsoever for schooling. Miss Thompson, who is bi-lingual, had not been formally trained to teach deaf children, but the idea appealed to her.

In co-operation with Dr. Richard Reidman of San Diego State College, a census of deaf children in Tijuana was taken. A testing of these children was made and a pilot program was started to school them.

In October of 1965, with the help of parents whose children would be attending classes, Centro de Rehabilitacion Auditiva was officially opened. The school was held in a four-room house which had been rented by the parents. Miss Thompson also lived in the house. Classes were held daily and students of all ages were urged to attend. Miss Thompson, who startd with twelve sudents, had acquired over forty students by the end of the year. Her pupils ranged in age from three to nineteen yars old.

Move to Church

In the fall of 1966 the little house had grown crowded. Arrangements were made to hold classes temporarily in the church biuldings of the neighborhood church, Our Lady of Fatima, until another building could be rented or built. Classes began on the church property in September with twenty-four regular students and over twenty part-time students. The school day starts at 8:30 and ends at 3. It became necessary for the parents to hire a bus to transport the many studens to and from the school.

The school receives no public funds for operation. Expenses are paid solely by the parents of the students. Miss Thompson, who is devoting the next four years to this project of establishing the school on a sound basis, receives no salary. Her necessary expenses are paid by parents and interested persons. The school has very few supplies and operates with little equipment. In spite of these drawbacks, Miss Thompson has accomplished miracles. Children who had never uttered a word are now speaking words and understanding.

Club Formed

Although a Father's Club has been formed at the school to raise money for a permanent building, supplies and basic equipment are desperately needed now. The school is a pioneer effort in Tijuana, which offers no facilities or teachers for its deaf children.

For this reason and because of Miss Thompson's unselfish and tireless efforts on behalf of her students, the Delta Zeta Alumnae of San Diego selected the school to receive the majority of the benefits from its luncheon-fashion show. The sorority plans to purchase several pieces of auditory equipment which would enable Miss Thompson to improve her program considerably.

The luncheon will be preceded by a no-host cocktail hour which begins at 11:30 at the Kona Kai Club pool. For further information call Mrs. Lawrence Bragg at 276-5436.

Among special guests at the luncheon will be William Happ of Spring Valley. Mrs. Happ is the Director of the Collegiate Chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority's Gamma Omicron chapter at San Diego State College.

Pink Ladies Aid Patients

Auxiliaries of three local hospitals, Edgemoor Geriatric, Grossmont and Hillside-Heartland, will send members to represent them during Pink Lady Days, today and Friday, at a local chain of five department stores.

This is an annual event in which Pink Ladies in their uniforms assist the regular staff of the stores in order to draw attntion to the volunteer services performed by the hospital auxiliaries. Information is distributed explaining how Pink Ladies bring an extra touch of cheer and comfort to patients and their families in hospitals in San Diego County.

Pink Lady Days chairmen from this area are Mrs. Rex Budel, Edgemoor, and Mrs. Harry Griffen, Grossmont.

Volunteers at Edgemoor Geriatric Hospital find unusual tasks because the average age of patients there is 75 and many patients are undergoing long term care.

An active sewing group makes capelets and booties for wheel chair patients. The beauty care volunteers are very important to the morale of women patients as is the volunteer barber to the men's. Each patient is remembered by the Auxiliary on his birthday with individually chosen and beautifully wrapped gifts.

Pink Ladies conduct craft groups, music therapy hours, games and trips, and spend many hours wheeling patients to chapel services, the canteen and administration offices.

MEET FRANK FLEMING

Frank is one of our Plant Engineers working in the La Mesa Exchange. Some of you who live in the northern section of La Mesa may have already met Frank, for this is where he is most actively engaged in the planning and designing of outside plant facilities to serve the many new subdivisions that are now in various stages of construction in the area.

As a result of our developing new materials, tools and methods, it is now economically feasible in many situations to place new distribution facilities underground. These buried cables and wires are generally placed after the lots have been rough graded and the curbs and gutters are in place, as pictured below.

House of Pacific Relations To Celebrate 31st Year

Members of cottages representing 19 nations comprising the House of Pacific Relations in Balboa Park will celebrate their 31st year Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Balboa Park Club. Their International Fall Fiesta will be open to the public, said LCDR Harold H. Stuart, USN, ret., President.

The Fiesta will open with the entrance of the Campbell Band and Junior Bagpipe Band from the House of Scotland, piping in the colors of all representative nations.

A Grand March for members and guests, dressed in the costumes of their countries of origin will precede the dance.

An unique organization, believed to be the only such ethnic group of its kind—any place in the world—the House of Pacific Relations was conceived by the late Frank Drugan for the 1935-36 California Pacific International Exposition, held in Balboa Park. The word "Pacific" was used in its meaning of "peaceful". The cottages since that time have been retained as a permanent meeting place for various national groups. The cottages hold "open house" every Sunday afternoon, serving refreshments to all visitors, and each rotates as "host" presenting programs "on the lawn" featuring native music and dancing.

Dr. Soldmann

Dr. W. T. Soldmann In Hospital Race

Dr. William T. Soldmann, Jr., M.D., 54, one of Grossmont Hospital's founding doctors, and former chief of the medical staff, is seeking one of two hospital board vacancies in the Nov. 8 election.

A resident of the area for 16 years, Dr. Soldmann has practiced medicine in La Mesa since 1946, after a 52-month stint in World War II as a Navy doctor.

"If Grossmont Hospital is to serve and care for the people of our great Inland community, it must move ahead vigorously—it cannot hesitate longer," Dr. Soldmann declared.

He said the hospital has not kept pace with the population growth nor the area's health demands, which he said are increasing faster than the population.

"When Grossmont Hospital first opened in 1555 there were 92,000 residents in the district. Today there are 220,000. We opened with 118 beds, today we have 233—not nearly eough," he said.

Dr. Soldmann was the hospital's first chief of medical staff, serving from 1955 to 1957.

Today he is in the second year of service on the staff's executive committee. The medical staff numbers 650 doctors.

One of the firms, Brown and Root of Texas, was the prime contractor for Mohole.

Congressman Rumsfeld said he was puzzled by the report of the Comptroller General of the U.S. that "massive expenditure of public funds under the contract" was being only lightly auditied.

The Comptroller General said that only about $30 million of claimed cost reimbursements in Vietnam actually were audited, of which $72,593 had been disallowed or suspended in Saigon pending further review.

Asks Passage Of Prop. 2

Lemon Grove has a direct interest in the passage of Proposition 2 on Nov. 8, R. P. Dryden, manager of the U. S. National Bank in Lemon Grove said this week.

"As part of the great residential complex surrounding State College it will benefit from the more than $13 million that will be channeled into State for construction and equipment.

"Even more important than the economic impact," said Dryden, who is chairman of the Lemon Grove committee for "Yes on 2", is the importance of continued growth on the State College campus. Enrollment has jumped six times since 1946. Voters must act courageously and with vision November 8," he said.

Dryden said the cost of the issue will be 49 cents a year for each Californian.

"This will be borne, in part, by the students who will reap its benefits since they will be the taxpayers of tomorrow who will help pay off these bonds."

Dryden is trustee of the Grossmont High School and College District.

Venereal Problem Gets CCPT Study

A Health and Welfare meeting of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers was held in the El Cajon home of Mrs. Eugene Hill, Welfare charman of Foothills Secondary Council, C.C.P.T., last week. In attendance were Mrs. R. J. Collette, president from Lemon Grove, Mrs. H. L. Miguel and El Cajon High PTA's and Greenfield, Palm Lemon Grove, Emerald, Cajon Valley and Spring Valley Junior High PTA's.

Mrs. Collette reported that the Ninth District emergency clohing room is available for use by the entire county, not just the city, as some county PTA members have thought. Used clothing may be obtained free of charge by needy children upon presentation of a request by the school nurse.

Mrs. Pace led a discussion on the increase of venereal disease and concern in the lack of sex education in some of the schools. She stated that VD is more prevalent in teenagers 15 years of age and up than measles, mumps and chicken pox. Discussion led to the possibility of forming a Foothills study group on VD and are we giving enough sex education, to include members of the council, PTA units, school faculties and administrators, and other pertinent organizations.

A follow-up on this meeting will be made through a Foothills Secondary Council program oin venereal disease, Nov. 16.

'Game' Monarchs Face Highlanders

by Dale Kowach

For the fourth straight week Monte Vista's Monarchs will tangle with an undefeated opponent when they visit Helix Stadium for an 8 p.m. engagement with the Helix Highlanders.

The Monarchs were losing their third straight grid contest last weekend while Helix was winning its third without a loss, dumping El Cajon, 34-20.

Monte Vista once again played well, but not well enough as Granite Hills Eagles escaped with a 27-12 decision. The Eagles had whipped their first two opponents by margins of over 30 points.

TD Passes

Helix, pre-season favorite for the Grossmont League title, broke away from a 20-20 halftime tie on touchdown passes by Rick Edwards to John Young and Mike Mallow.

Granite Hills won its game with Monte Vista by scoring twice in the fourth period.

The Eagles were first to score in the game when quarterback Mike Reinbach threw the first of three TD passes to end Tim Collins. The initial score was for eight yards.

Aylward Scores

Monte Vista fired back with a 53-yard drive, ending with Rick Aylward hauling in a 26-yard pass from QB Chuck Downing. Both first-half touchdowns came in the second period.

Granite Hills pulled ahead in the third period. Reinbach tosed to Collins for nine yards and the Eagles were on top. The conversion made it 13-6.

Once more Monte Vista retaliated, this time junior back Kent Maughn crossing the Eagles' goaline from the 10. The point-after-touchdown failed and it was 13-12.

Halfback Barry Hines killed all Monarch comeback hopes with a 30-yard scoring run late in the final period. Granite Hills scored again seconds before the gun went off on a TD pass from Reinbach to Collins, good for 15 yards.

Mustol Stars

Monarch coach Max McCartney credited John Mustol, Kent, slotback Tom Arnold guard Ken Baker and split end Aylward with "outstanding games."

Mustol set a new school defensive points record with 28. The old record was 26. Kent tallied 22 for the contest.

Aylward, for the second week in a row, caught six passes to tie the school standard. He now has 17 for three games, tieing the school's season record.

by Ben Sele

Mount Miguel's Matadors, 39-14 winners over El Capitan last Friday, will try and make it two Grossmont League wins in a row this Friday night when they entertain Santana's Sultans in an 8 p.m. game at Mount Miguel Stadium.

The Matadors utilized a three-touchdown performance by speedy halfback Frank Gilbert to spoil the Vaqueros' homecoming.

Gilbert tallied on the first play from scrimmage with a 63-yard scamper. The senior back scored again after an El Capitan punt. The second TD went for 51 yards.

Jim Murguia gave the Matadors a 20-0 first period lead when he bolted over from the five-yard line.

The Vaqueros scored with four minutes remaining in the half on a five-yard run by John Mertel.

The third period was scoreless.

In the fourth quarter the Matador offense got rolling again. Murguia followed a pass interception with a 54-yard touchdown and quarterback Jerry Lowery passed 35-yards to Gilbert for another score.

Monte Vista, Mt. Miguel Bands In Annual Autumn Band Jamboree

The Eighth Annual Autumn Band Jamoree, presented by the Bands and Specialty Corps of the Grossmont Union High School District, will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Aztec Stadium at San Diego State College.

Participating in this annual spectacular pageant will be the bands and specialty corps from eight high schools, comprising a total of over 1,000 students. March-in order of bands opens with Monte Vista, followed by Helix, Grossmont, El Capitan, Mt. Miguel, El Cajon, Granite Hills, and ending with Santana. Each band will present a "half-time" show in the following order: Mt. Miguel, Granite Hills, Monte Vista, Santana, Helix, El Cajon, El Capitan, and closing with Grossmont.

The annual Autumn Band Jamboree is the culmination of a year's work by the Grossmont District Music Coordinating Council. The Council is an outgrowth of the enthusiastic Parents' Club that is behind each of the eight high school bands. Each Parent Club has three members in the Council—the music director, president of the Parent's Club and a representative.

Larry Curtis, present director at Mt. Miguel, has added a new feature to the music program. A state band, composed of 21 top bandsmen, won first place in a field of 120 stage bands in the Fontana Music Festival. The Marching Matadors and the Speciality Corps have appeared in the Band Jamboree since it began in 1958. Their showmanship and musical ability have made them one of the top attractions of the jamboree.

Monte Snyder is band director of the "Marching Monarchs."

This year the "Mighty Marching Monarchs" number 95 strong.

Helix Seniors Are Merit Semi-finalists

Two Helix seniors qualified as semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship preliminary examinations.

The students are David Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harper, 4050 Marian, La Mesa, and James Ketchum, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ketchum, 3973 Apore, La Mesa.

To qualify as semi-finalists they must take another test. Final results will be announced in May 1967.

The tests were given in the spring of last year. Some 38,000 students participated nationally. Ninety-seven Helix students took the test.

CHAMBER SUPPORT

Directors of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce today voted to support State Proposition 3 in the Nov. 8 general election. The proposal, known as the "Open Space Amendment", would amend the Constitution to authorize the Legislaure to define "open space lands" to be used for recreation, enjoyment of scenic beauty, use of natural resources or production of food or fiber. The Legislature could then require assessors to value the lands for assessment purposes in accordance with the restrictions on land use.

Student enrollment at the San Diego campus of the University of California has jumped by more than 50 per cent over last year.

100-Lap Main Event Set For Super Stocks Finale

Climaxing the best racing year in stock car history, the super stock cars of the El Cajon Racing Association will perform in their final appearance of the season Saturday night at Cajon Speedway.

The 8:15 p.m. program will be capped by a 100-lap main event, the first since the track has been paved. A three-lap trophy dash, heat races and two semi-mains of 10 and 25 laps will accompany the major event.

Dick Guest of Lakeside is the current 100-lap record holder. That record came about on the old dirt track. His main competition Saturday night will come from El Cajon's Vance Butler and Russ Bullen of San Diego. Bullen and Butler are one-two in the point standings.

Third-place man on the point standings totem pole is Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove. His place seems secure as the fourth-place driver is 700 points back.

Total attendance for the year at Cajon Speedway has passed the 138,000 mark, a better than 25 per cent increase over 1965.

Over 60 cars are expected to enter qualifying at 6:30 p.m. Included are three past 100-lap champions, Bullent, Guest and Tex Kimbrell of Imperial Beach.

Politics In Brief

JOHN NAGY

John Nagy, president of Statewide Homeowners Association, has attacked the proposal to limit property taxes. He called the proposal, "a scheme of slum owners and land speculators so their contribution to the cost of government would be reduced even further."

"Homemakers would pay much more taxes if the sales tax, cigarette tax, income tax or gasoline tax would be increased to make up the loss in property taxes", he said.

Nagy cautioned homeowners not to carry petitions, and urged them not to sign such petitions. He charged that if all revenue for schools would come from state and federal sources, as proposed by the tax ceiling scheme, local school boards would have no say whatsoever about school programs.

He said, "The property tax is the tax closest to the people. It is a good tax because the state and federal governments do not get their mitts in for neither a slice, nor for control over use. It is collected locally, spent locally and controlled locally."

REAGAN-FINCH

If he is elected Governor the office of Lieutenant Governor will be given broader powers and more direct responsibility in solving California's problems, Republican Gubernatorial candidate Ronald Reagan said.

Reagan said his running mate, Robert H. Finch, "will be a tremendous asset to my administration because of his wide experience in politics, as an attorney and in community affairs."

Reagan said that in his administartion Finch will serve as liaison man with local governments, will coordinate state planning and administration with the new computer technology being developed in California aerospace firms and on university campuses, and will head the effort to mobilze the independent sector of the economy in the attack on major sate problems.

CHARLES CONRAD

"Some of the heads of organized labor are so busy playing politics they are forgetting one of their basic functions which is to inform their membership as well as the public regarding non-union products", said Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad, 57th District.

"Why do these labor bosses ignore the fact that the 'Citizens for Brown' committee under the co-chairmanship of Alfred J. Stern, Earl Warren, Jr. and Garret McEnerney is sending out campaign literature and business reply envelopes which do not carry the union label?

"In addition it has become a custom in my district for some Democratic candidates to utilize non-union printing in the primary confident that, like Governor Brown, they still will receive the endorsement of the labor politicians at the general election.

"Fortunatly at long last the rank and file of union members are seeing through the smoke screen thrown up by these labor politicians. Many union members are supporting Ronald Reagan for Governor as well as my own candidacy for re-election in the 57th Assembly District."

PROP. 1-A

California legislators should not be permitted to fix their own salary, in the opinion of the Non-partisan Citizens Committee "No" on Proposition 1-A on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Giving legislators a free hand in fixing their own pay was one of the recommendations of the California Constitution Revision Commission appointed by the Legislature.

SPENCER WILLIAMS

Spencer Williams, Republican candidate for State Attorney General has taken serious exception to current proposals to limit pre-trial publicity of criminal cases.

In a carefully drawn position paper released, William noted that "legal safeguards are now available" to protect the rights of the accused to a fair trial.

"We need no censorship," Williams stated. "Instead we should welcome the close scrutiny of the press on all public business."

"Strict mandatory procedures would most certainly protect the rights of a guilty party to a fair rial but it is conceivable hat he rights of an innocen person so arrested would be seriously infringed upon," Williams said.

The GOP candidate pointed out that "the detailed publicity of an arrest is in itself a protection against fraudulent charges, or high handed tactics."

Stressed Williams: "The history of American journalism is sprinkled with cases where newspapers have uncovered evidence to free the innocent and th ignorant."

Williams also noted that to censor criminal news would invite other types of censorship, possibly legitimate news critical of government or its employees.

According to Williams, the defense attorney can now protect his client from over zealous, pre-trial coverage by requesting a change in venue or moving for mistrial.

Further, said Williams, "the trial court can grant a mistrial on its own initiative."

Williams suggested that the judge also could "admonish the jury to disregard all newspaper, radio and TV coverage much as he would would—and does—in other situations where inadmissable evidence is injected in jury cases."

Williams termed the right of the public to be informed "paramount."

SEIZURES

Governor Edmund G. Brown has dispatched a telegram to Secretary of State Dean Rusk in connection with the Peruvian holding of California fishing vessels.

Text of the wire follows:

"As you know, three of our California-based American tuna vessels have been seized on the high seas by the Peruvian government.

"It is my understanding that twelve additional vessels, on Oct. 3, 1966, entered the Port of Talara, Peru, in protest of this illegal seizure on the high seas.

"I urgently request that you take every step necessary to release these illegally restrained vessels, and that every effort be made to resolve this continuing interference of American vessels on the high seas."

PROPOSITION TWO

More than $40 million in new facilities will be assured for expansion of the University of California and State College campuses here if Proposition 2 passes in November, Norman Foster, chairman of a countywide "Yes On 2" committee, said.

"Approval of the $230 million bond issue provided under Proposition 2 will guarantee orderly growth at these two institutions," he pointed out. "Without these funds, UCSD and State College cannot expand adequately to meet future enrollment pressures. They would thus be forced to deny admission to many qualified San Diego students."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Your entire paper the past two weeks has been a wonderful, eye-catching surprise to me.

I have been able to enjoy and revel in the distinctive dark print and the recognizable pictures.

Since my sight has been failing for over two years it has become increasingly difficult for me to see or read print. I have had to skim over your paper for so many months because the print was so light. The pictures were very poor, also.

Gratefully,
(Mrs. G. G.) Candy Walker

Dear Editor:

Guess you have wondered what became of me, well I'm doing 90 days in Ventura County Jail for failure to have $2.60 cab fare. If everybody who owes me $2.60 was put in jail, Ventura & L.A. County Jail wouldn't hold them.

Well, I'll be out of here sometime around Nov. 1st then I'll probably have to be taken to San Diego County Jail to answer 3 traffic citations. Oh well, I'm resting up & doing a lot of painting, sculpturing, etc., like playing chess, watching TV. Just in general living it up, no work to do much, just keep my little old cell clean. This is the life, you should be here, then you wouldn't have to pull the rest of your hair out.

Well see you around Thanksgiving or Xmas. Please don't put all of this on the front page or else no more business, which you'll say "What Business."

There is a little poem you can publish if you want to.

"Outside of my cell I see, a place that I would like to be, sitting under that tree, and looking up at the Cross I know that I've been double-crossed."

Your friend,

The pool partners will file approximately 500 separate orders for election night communications services, some at the last possible moment.

Single Vehicle Accidents Lead Freeway Crash Rates

If you have the idea that an automobile accident on the freeway is a crash meeting of two or more vehicles, research by the California Division of Highways should cause you to change your mind.

In 1964 and 1965, 60 percent of the people killed on California freeways were victims of running off the road, striking a fixed object, such as a bridge pier, guardrail, etc. or they were pedestrians.

Studies just completed by the Division of Highways examined the exact circumstances of 1,040 accidents in which 1,266 persons were killed. Collisions with fixed objects placed off of the highway accounted for 368 accidents in which 418 persons met death.

The second most common accident cause came about when vehicles ran off the road but did not strike a fixed object. There were 180 of these accounting for 209 dead.

Pedestrians

Skipping to fourth place, there were 123 accidents involving pedestrians, resulting in the loss of 133 lives.

The research proved that persons in these classifications seldom had anyone to blame but themselves. They were traveling at unsafe speeds, driving or walking on a freeway after drinking, falling asleep at the wheel, becoming preoccupied with something other than their driving or standing near their cars in unsafe fashion—these were the major causes of coming to grief without involving another car.

The third most frequent accidents were the 178 wrong-way mishaps that cost 218 persons their lives.

In rapidly descending order in the accident numbers were cross-median and side-swipe mishaps. Eighteen fatal accidents occuring in construction zones and those that could not be classified accounted for 15 fatalities.

Research

Traffic engineers chose calendar years 1964 and 1965 for the survey period because complete details were available regarding each fatal accident.

As a result of their studies, further research is under way to find and develop means of reducing accidents, especially those with fixed objects.

State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack pointed out that "We have fixed objects such as sign poles, light poles, bridge rails and median barriers as safety and convenience features for the motorists, and yet these are the very things that may become weapons of destruction. We must find ways to retain the good features of freeway appurtenances while eliminating the bad."

State Water Item To Be Discussed

Should water quality standards be nationwide, statewide or regional? Where should the primary responsibility rest in pollution control? The public in invited to attend.

Hostesses and meeting places are: Oct. 25; 9:30 a.m. at 1702 Vann Ct., El Cajon, Mrs. V. S. Moore; Oct. 26, 9:30 a.m. at 10744 Challenge, La Mesa, Mrs. W. E. Boas; Oct. 26, 7:30 p.m. at Cajon Valley Jr. Hi Library, El Cajon, Mrs. Robert Moorhouse; Oct. 27, 9:30 a.m. at 6678 Belle Glade, San Diego, Mrs. R.
